

THE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

DEPARTMENT OF GEOGRAPHY
CENTRE OF URBAN PLANNING AND ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT
DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING

are pleased to present a seminar by

Prof T O Wallin

Associate Professor of Transportation and Marketing, School of Management, Syracuse University, New York

Visiting Scholar, Department of Industrial Engineering & Engineering Management, HKUST

Visiting Associate Professor, School of Business, HKU

Part-time Lecturer, Department of Geography, HKU

On

The role of logistics in the development of Hong Kong global economic strategy

Time: 7:00 p.m., Tuesday, March 06, 2001

Venue: Room 222, Hui Oi Chow Science Building, HKU

Active in professional affairs, Prof Wallin serves as External Advisor to the IVE programs in Transport and Logistics, Vice Chair and Director of Education for Hong Kong Logistics Association, Lecturer in the Master of Transport Planning program at HKU, Lecturer for various executive development programs, and advisor to HKU Poon Kam Kai Center in the development of logistics programs. He is also involved with the HKPC and HKLA in the development of a professional program in logistics and is a fellow of the Charter Management Association and the Asia Pacific CEO Organization. Prof Wallin is also affiliated with the Council of Logistics Management, American Society of Transportation and Logistics, and Delta Nu Alpha. Prof Wallin has assisted in the development of the Graduate Diploma in Transport and Logistics at HKUST and has lectured in the program as well as, regularly, in IEEM Courses in Transportation, Logistics, and Technology Marketing.